

FALL/WINTER 2007

"I want to be happy,
but my eyes
won't let me."

Ellowyne Wilde

Notes from the Couch

My therapist, Dr. Bantam, says I suffer from chronic ennui – but I guess I'm just too tired to figure it all out. I'm supposed to write down my thoughts and feelings, but really, what's to feel? I much prefer to spend time with my best friend, Prudence Moody.

Dr. Bantam thinks that Prudence is a good influence on me...she likes to smile, and we sometimes go line dancing together. She and I share the same birthday, and she has this strange way of just 'knowing' things...I can't explain it. You can find out more about Prudence on page 5 and in my journals on MySpace.com/Ellowyne.

(sigh)...I feel obscure again.

Love, Ellowyne

WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF ELLOWYNE WILDE

She's eternally bored and ready to conquer the doll world....if only she had the energy (sigh...). Designed by renowned fashion doll artist Robert Tonner for Wilde Imagination, Ellowyne stands 16" tall from head to toe. Made of high-quality vinyl and hard plastic, she boasts 12-points of articulation for unlimited posing possibilities. Hand-painted features, rooted saran hair, and designer fabrics are the hallmarks of this temperamental girl.

With a personality as unique as her wardrobe, Ellowyne is definitely the newest doll with a mood.
