

FALL 2010

All dressed up, but I don't want to go...

Ellowyn  Wilde

Scanty clothes and cheerful grin; Are not the style of Ellowyn

*Sometimes I feel like
I'm already there
Just drifting through life –
trying not to care;
Each day is another –
so much time to afford (sigh) I guess my new title should be
CHAIRMAN OF THE BORED*

Notes from the Couch

My therapist, Dr. Bantam, says I suffer from chronic ennui, with just a touch of melancholy – but I guess I'm just too tired to figure it all out. I'm supposed to write down my thoughts and feelings to help me get over my 'condition' – but I much prefer to go shopping.

She was quite interested when I told her about Amber Stanhope. I've known Amber forever – she's my Uncle Arthur's daughter – I guess you can call her my 'frienemy.' Dr. Bantam thinks I should confront her, but I'm not so sure. You can check her out on page 14 and make up your own mind about Amber.

I have a therapy session tomorrow, and don't want to disappoint Dr. Bantam. She's always asking me how I feel about things, but really, what's to feel?

Love, Ellowyn

En·nui (on-we) – A feeling of weariness and dissatisfaction.

ALL ABOUT ME

I live in San Francisco, in my Grandmother's house. It's filled with antiques and items from the dollar store. I like to write, so I've been working on my autobiography. So far it doesn't have a happy ending (sigh..) I think the first draft was better. I tend to get bored quite easily, but my favorite thrift shops provide me with something to do. And I always feel obscure...is that even normal?

Who I'd Like to Meet: Willy Wonka, who inspires me, and Joan Crawford, who taught me never to smile, which helps me when I visit nursing homes.

My Favorite Music: Oboes and cellos really speak to me, so any music that uses these instruments; Chopin, who makes me weep, plus ANYTHING by Aimee Mann, Karen Carpenter and Judy Garland (seriously, she's amazing!)

My Favorite Movies: I used to like Tim Burton movies, but lately they seem to make the sky dark. Prudence says movies help you wish for things, but they just make me wish I were somewhere else.

My Favorite T.V. Shows: I don't really watch television - it's too difficult to make a decision on a nightly basis. But I do like repeats of Six Feet Under, and Prudence thinks I should watch Dancing with the Stars...you know, for tips and stuff. But really....

My Heroes: I like to read, especially at night. Books help me get through the day and night. The writings of Sylvia Plath give me hope, and the Bronte sisters, who inspire me to...well, I'm not sure, but I like them. And Charlie and the Chocolate Factory - I connect with Charlie's family.

Evangeline Ghastly

She's a whole other story...

NEW

NEW

Born: April 24, 1924

Place of Birth: Ipswich, England
(to the attic of Barkley Manor)

The weather on the night of Evangeline's birth was as expected. The wind was howling, the moon was full, and the doctor was unavailable.

And so begins the story of Evangeline Ghastly. Where most call her unfortunate; she thinks of herself as misunderstood. Beginning with a mysterious diary entry, a pet skunk named Mouette, and fashions straight out of a Victorian novel, Evangeline is definitely... a whole other story!

Created by designer Joe Petrollese and sculpted by renowned fashion doll artist Robert Tonner, Evangeline is crafted entirely of the finest pale luminescent resin, and now in the highest-quality vinyl too.

Completely ball-jointed, she comes complete with hand-painted features and a designer wardrobe befitting any mortician's assistant.

Evangeline comes to you straight from the attic of Barkley Manor in Ipswich, England, across from the local cemetery, prepared to share her quirky tales, unique fashion sense, and mysterious life in one of the oldest towns in England.

You can find out more about Evangeline Ghastly, view her designer fashions, and read her diary entries at:
