BELIEVE IN THE POWER OF PLAY™

Dear Friends,

As a new year opens and the collections come to life, I want to personally thank you for continuing to make Tonner Doll Company's wide and varied doll lines your personal favorites! Without you, none of this would be possible. Gratefully, I am happy to present one of the richest and most colorful collections to date. In 2003, we have many surprises planned for all the young at heart. Within these pages, you will find new dreams and visions that dance from one collection to the next. As always, the attention to the finest fabrics and quality detailing is exhibited in the very faces and clothing you see before you. I also must give my sincerest thanks to artists such as Sherry Miller, Shirley Devlin and Marcia Friend for contributing to Tyler's ever-expanding world. Because you demand the highest quality materials and superior craftsmanship, it is with great pleasure that I open the 2003 collections with the dolls, outfits and accessories, each with the quality you have come to trust. Listening to your wishes and concerns will always be my first priority... because of you, we at the Tonner Doll Company "believe in the power of play."

THE MAKING OF A LEGEND...

From an early age, Tyler Wentworth was destined to be a high flyer in the world of high fashion. During the 1950's, Tyler's great-aunt, Regina Wentworth, established the House of Wentworth in New York City and created innovative collections that set the standard for Seventh Avenue fashion design. Years later, Tyler, who had always loved the glamour and excitement of her great-aunt's business, joined the prestigious houses' design staff. She proved to be exceptionally talented, and it was not long until she was promoted to be Regina's first assistant. With the House of Wentworth's reputation firmly established, Regina began to consider passing the reins to a new talent. Spurring her on was her relationship with Carlos, a young artist who had instantly fallen in love with the chic, elegant, older designer. Soon Regina made her decision to move with Carlos to the south of France, and she turned the company over to Tyler. Although young for the job, Tyler quickly showed that she was equal to her new responsibilities. With only a few short seasons of fashion experience, she confidently assumed leadership of the House of Wentworth and received rave reviews for her first collection. Tonner Doll Company is pleased to present the Tyler Wentworth® collection. Tyler is a 16-inch, vinyl/hard plastic doll with rooted hair and an extensive, stylish wardrobe. NEW in 2003, Signature Style AR – featuring articulation at the bust, waist and hip. Now Tyler can assume the most fashionable poses!

Théâtre
DE LA MODE

With a world in restoration and a city in great need, the couturiers of Paris banded together after World War II to create one of the most telling and fully complete representations of fashion splendor. The 1945 showing of the Théâtre de la Mode opened a world of wearing apparel perfection in miniature, but not lacking a single detail known of the great haute couture Parisian houses. Permanently housed since 1952 and preserved by the caring hands of Maryhill Museum of Art in Goldendale, Washington, the Théâtre de la Mode lives as one of the most important collections of couture finery and masterworks in the world. Traveling to the austere beauty of the Columbia Gorge in Washington State, Regina Wentworth often drew upon the inspirations of silhouettes and themes in the collection. An admirer of the retrospective and an innovator of new style from vintage art, Tyler Wentworth™ follows in her great-aunt's passions by creating breathtaking beauty inspired by the dramatic masters of the Théâtre de la Mode. Experience the continued splendor of two new styles to build your collection.

"...the hottest product launched...at the American International ToyFair..."
New York Post, February 12, 2002

ToyFair 2002 brought many new entries into the world of collectible toys; but for the first time ever, a collectible doll line was introduced based on the revolutionary style and panache of the World's Leading Plus Size Model, EMME®. This is the first time in doll history that a collectible doll line with separately available outfits is primarily based on the full-figured female form as a symbol of high fashion and beauty. Now Robert Tonner brings you EMME™ as a beautiful 16" vinyl fashion doll with extraordinary fashions!

To the delight of mothers and daughters everywhere, Betsy debuted on the cover of McCall's Magazine in May 1951. Reading the adventures of Betsy and her friends and cutting out their paper clothes, brought imaginative fun to playtime. In 1957, Betsy jumped from the pages of McCall's Magazine into the active hands of her loyal fans as an 8-inch hard plastic doll. Produced by the American Character Doll Company in conjunction with McCall's, this Betsy was an instant hit as a playtime friend! In 2000, the Tonner Doll Company reintroduced 8-inch Betsy McCall™ as a high quality doll for play and collecting based on the original Tiny Betsy. Join in the new 2003 collection and reminisce with Tiny Betsy McCall!
